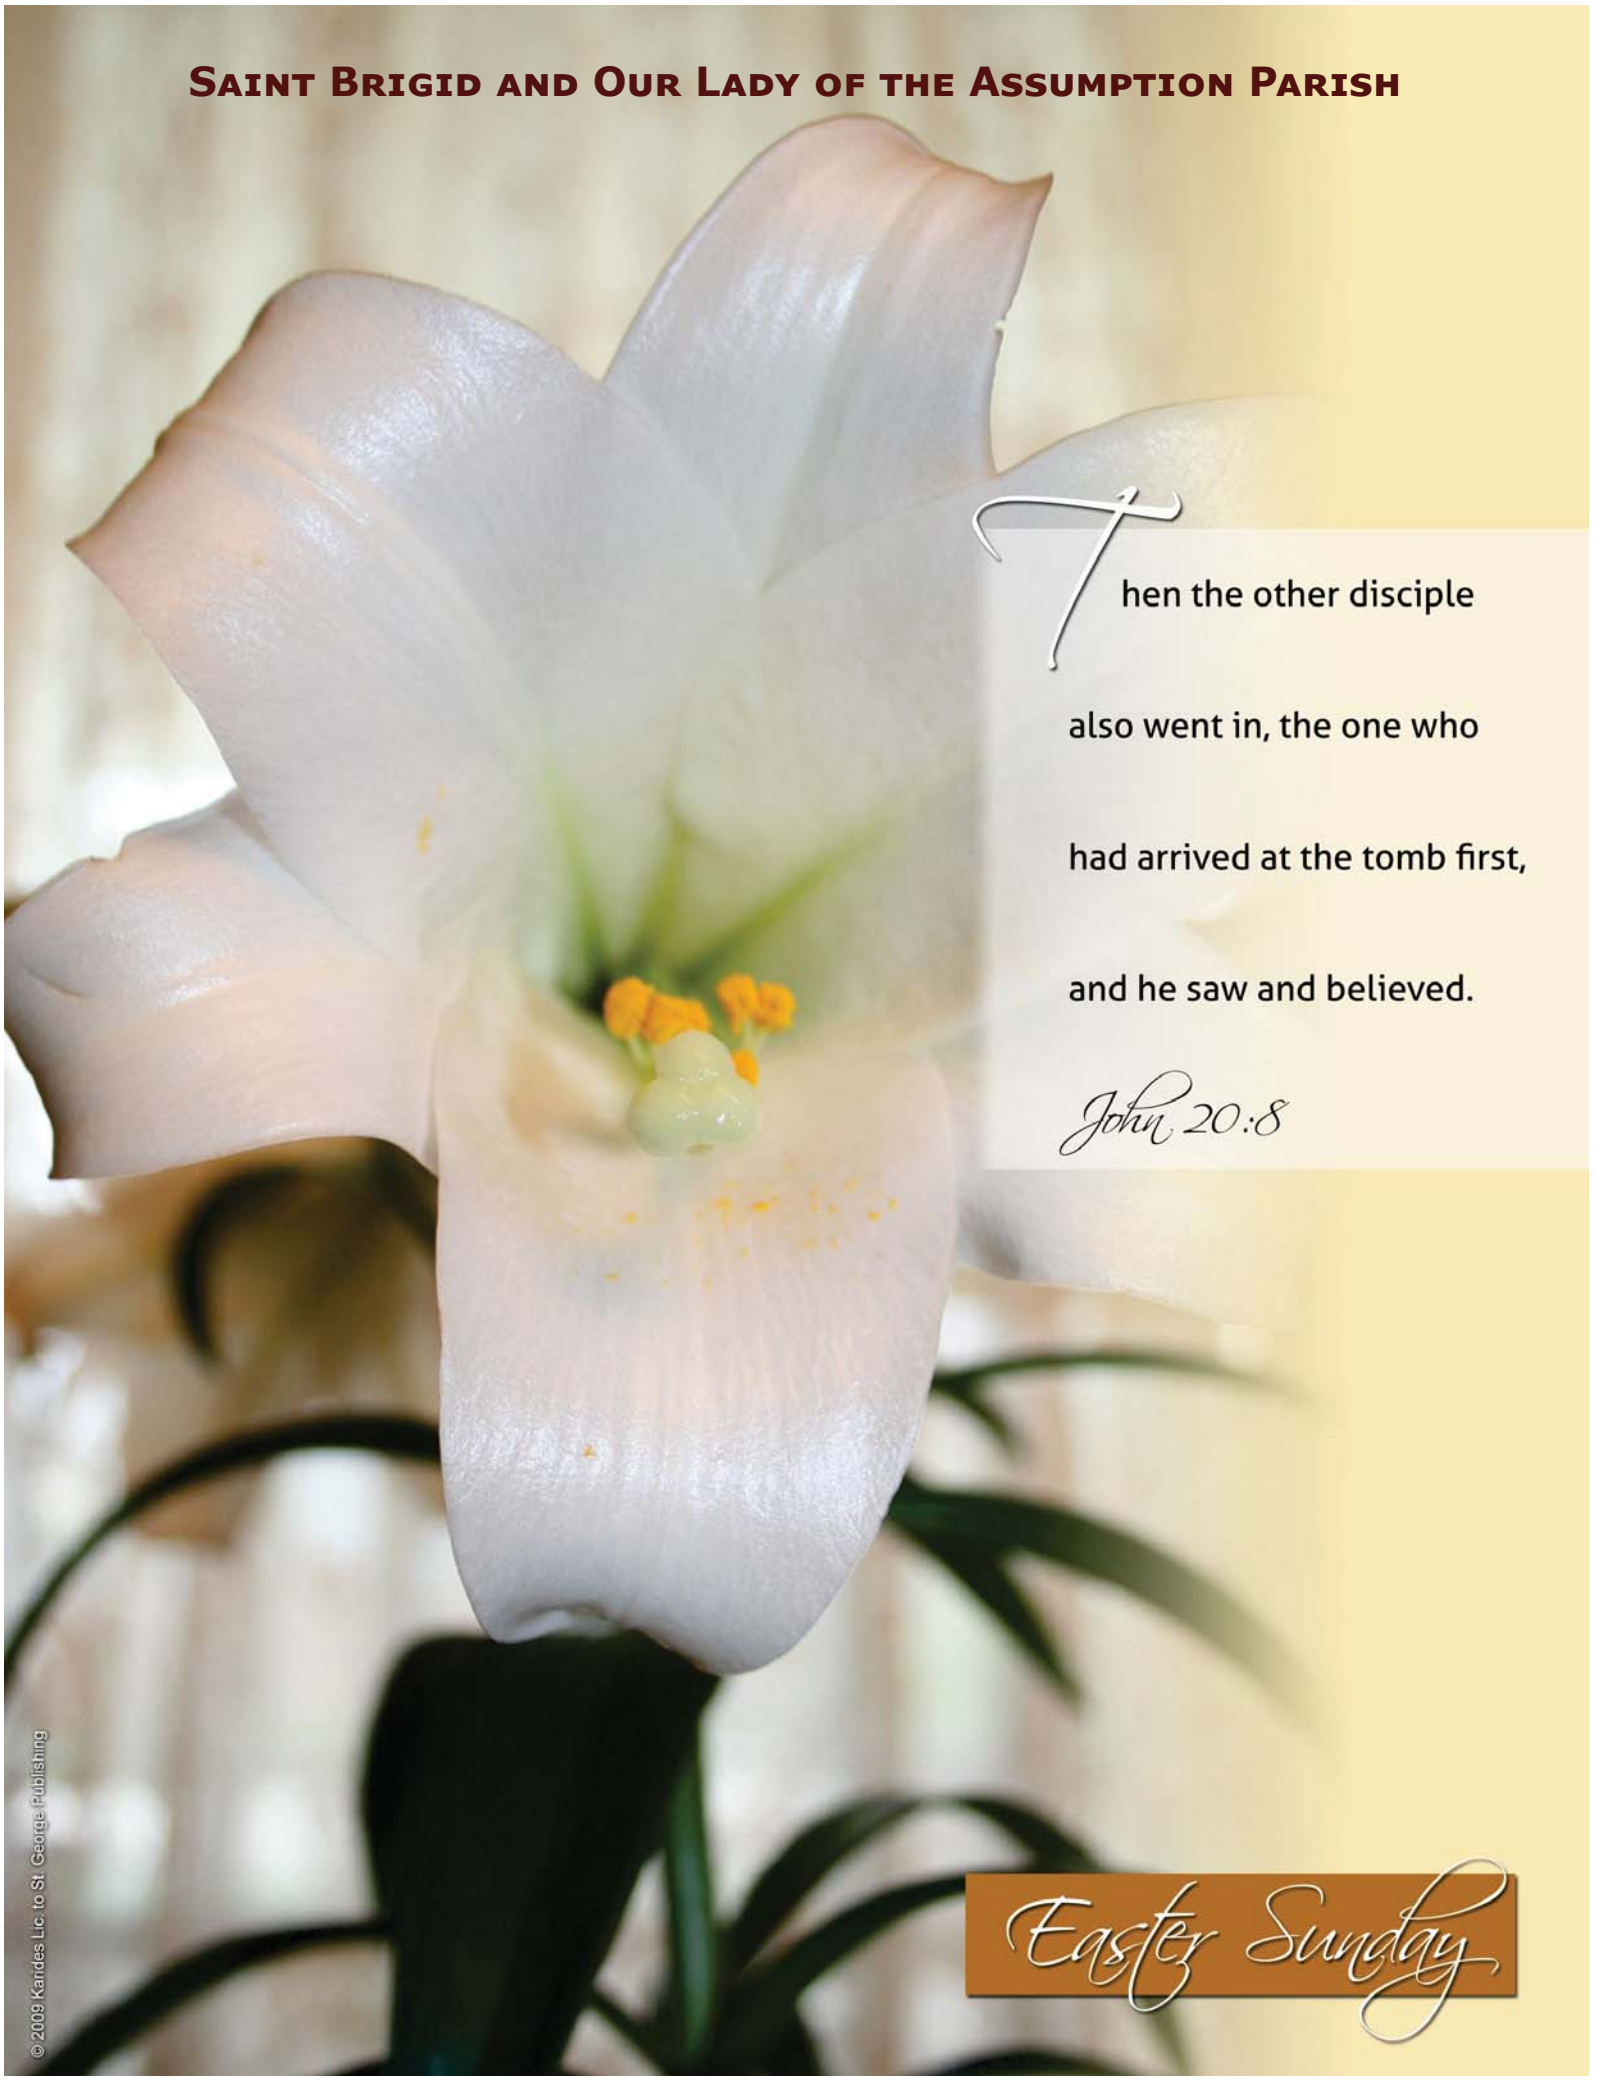
Saint Brigid and Our Lady of the Assumption Parish



Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed.

He Has Risen Alleluia! Alleluia!

All has led up to this moment, from the time He was born, the lessons He taught, the Agony in the Garden, to His most agonizing death on the Cross.

John the Baptist proclaimed "Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29). How could we have known or even realized what he meant. Even with all that had been written in the scriptures. We were not prepared for that moment. Was it real, did God actually send His Son to be sacrificed for our sins. "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." (John 3:16) This verse emphasizes God's immense love for humanity and the promise of eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ.

How do we repay Him? By going to Mass and receiving the most Holy Eucharist, which He gave us in the Last Supper. By following the teachings of Jesus, praying the Rosary, and praying the Devine Mercy Chaplet, and attending Adoration. Let us live up to what God created us for, as the Baltimore Catechism answer is, and you can say it with me, "God made me to know Him, to love Him and to serve Him in this world, and to be happy with Him forever in Heaven". Amen!

Happy Easter to all, with strengthened
Love and Praise
for our Lord, Jesus Christ

EASTER 2025

My dear friends in Christ,

Only a week has passed since Palm Sunday when we heard these words proclaimed from the Gospel of Luke: "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God."

Imagine what it was like for the disciples who watched as Jesus suffered and died on the cross. Had they abandoned all hope as they watched the Messiah's ignominious death on the cross?

In his letter to the Philippians, St. Paul writes "[Jesus] humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him." As baptized Catholics our faith has taught us that the crucifixion is not the end of the story. Jesus rising from the dead on that Easter morning was the source of hope for the disciples– and is still our source of hope today.

When Pope Francis announced a Jubilee Year of Hope for 2025, he reminded us that "hope is born of love and based on the love springing from the pierced heart of Jesus upon the cross . . . Christian hope does not deceive or disappoint because it is grounded in the certainty that nothing and no one may ever separate us from God's love."

This Easter Season I invite you to reflect on the fact that we can only be saved by God's love as revealed in the death and resurrection of his Son. We cannot save ourselves. Human history has demonstrated time and again that all the riches and power in the world will not raise someone from the dead to eternal life. Yet this is the promise of salvation which Christ won for us.

What will bring you happiness in life? If it is to be loved unconditionally despite all your faults and failings, then look to the Risen Christ today. If you are seeking a "hope that does not disappoint," then accept the invitation from Pope Francis to be a pilgrim seeking true hope in the love of God which is so bountiful that he invites us to spend eternity with him.

Our Holy Father reminds us that "hope, together with faith and charity, make up the. . . theological virtues that express the heart of the Christian life." May the hope found in the promise of eternal life bolster each of us to bear witness to Christian love, so that our faith may be joyful and our charity to others may be enthusiastic.

With prayerful best wishes for a joyous Easter and a life filled with hope, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Robert J. McManus

Consumer Disclosure/Award Rules: All participants who attend an estimated 60-90 minute in-home product consultation and choose to make a purchase will receive a $50 VISA card. Retail value is $50. Offer sponsored by LeafGuard Holdings Inc. Limit one per household. Company procures, sells, and installs seamless gutter protection. This offer is valid for homeowners over 18 years of age. If married or involved with a life partner, both cohabitating persons must attend and complete presentation together. Participants must have a photo ID and be legally able to enter into a contract. The following persons are not eligible for this offer: employees of Company or affiliated companies or entities, their immediate family members, previous participants in a Company in-home consultation within the past 12 months and all current and former Company customers. Card may not be extended, transferred, or substituted except that Company may substitute a card of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Card will be mailed to the participant via first class United States Mail or e-mailed within 30 days of receipt of the promotion form provided at presentation. Not valid in conjunction with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer not sponsored or promoted by VISA and is subject to change without notice prior to reservation. Except in the states of MD, NY and DC, where the gift card offer is limited to $25. Offer not available in the states of CA, IN, PA and MI. Expires 6/30/25
* Guaranteed not to clog for as long as you own your home, or we will clean your gutters for free.
